Happenings of the Week Abroad

The following despatch has been sent from Calgary in reference to the strike:

"Calgary, June 26.—(Special).—The striking C. P. R. section men here have sent a message to the grievance committee at Montreal, asking them to accept the company's terms. The feeling is that the company has acted fairly with the men, and that an opportunity should now be given to let the advance and new conditions demanded by the company become effective."

The men say that the statement contained in the first sentence of the telegram is absolutely and wholly

Chronicles of the City.

Number 3.

Now it came to pass that certain readers and Gentlemen, who dwell outside of the city wall, being jealous of the property and fair fame of the city over against the River Bow, did lift up their voices and mock after this fashion:

Go to ye dwellers in an evil city, ye are a pestilence, a self-seeking generation. For although you come from the River Bow, you are a pestilence. Waterloo, you are the salt of the earth. Ye are the sons and daughters of affliction. You drink water from your whiskey and the jobs, you are the sons of the city. And we will be dashed if you get the capital.

For these people dwell in Regina and Medicine Hat and Edmonton. And the people of the city over against the River Bow answered to the people of Regina and said:

Oh, ye children of Babel that are men of straw, take not issue against us, for we are the chosen people and must prevail. Ye people who live and have your being in industry and mud-and-in whom the milk of human kindness has been frozen by the north wind since winter for your sins, until ye can produce nothing but ice cream. Ye cannot take water in your whiskey. You cause there is none in all your land. Therefore revile us not but rather be ye in our wrath and wipe your face from the face of the earth and cast you into the limbo of Manitoba, where you will be bound with the shackles of taxation and not sent to Hill as you are even today, the official towns.

Therefore trouble us not at all for we do not want your money capital.

And without it you die. And the people of the city over against the River Bow answered to the people of Regina and said:

Oh ye whom we warned at our drinking and who like unto the world, would sting us, we would sting you even like the bad bees which do not worthy. Ye are as yet like unto the plants of the bay seed that groweth in wild places and the money is adherent to your backs. Therefore trouble us not at all but rather be ye quiet and the grandsons of your sons may yet see the money.

Man's railway. But against Medicine Hat the wrath of the people was kindled and they said:

Oh ye Philistines, ye devours of the other fellows' chance. What do you do on the hill? You mean to kill in your own. This is not your show. You are out of your dam, and we will take holy good care you are out of the running. Be content with your flocks and your herds the Assiniboia hotel and the waterworks and do not come up to the city and make us even.

But all these places did not take warning but reviled even more. So the people of the city over against the River Bow considered among themselves and said: Lo the people of Regina and Edmonton and Medicine Hat lift up their voices and mock us when we have done them no harm, shall we arise against them? But a certain scribe who was wise alone.

So it was even despite the reviling and the mocking of these people, dwellers in the city over against the River Bow said nothing but sawed wood.

AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE MEETING.

Arrangements have been completed by the Department of Agriculture at places for a series of Agricultural Institute meetings in central and northern Alberta.

The Dominion entomologist and botanist, Professor Fletcher, who has a world wide reputation as an expert on the noxious weed question, and whose plenary and effective lectures are highly appreciated by all farmer audiences, and Angus Mackay, the thoroughly practical superintendent of the Indian Head experimental farm, will address these meetings, a list of which with dates and places will be found advertised elsewhere herein.

Every farmer and stockman who is able to do so, should make a point of attending at least one of these meetings, and to bring specimens of weeds which have been found troublesome in his neighborhood, and he would be so prepared to ask questions relative to difficulties experienced in his locality and to participate in the discussions. It would certainly be very gratifying to the department to the officers of the agricultural societies, who are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to make the results result in the greatest benefit to the residents of the district affected, if the meetings are all well attended, and especially so, as the speakers are the best and the most numerous which, after all are the true indications of the utility of the meetings.

UPS AND DOWNS

"Really your face is very familiar, sir, but you have no advantage of me in name."

And she looks at a distinguished stranger with a puzzled air.

"I am," he said, "that you know me. My name is Bagnan, and four years ago I had the honor to be your coachman."

"The face of the lady blushed."

"Sir," she fairly gasped, "that a series of lucky investments has enabled me," he went on, "to buy your next door neighbor."

The lady's face softened. "You seemed to me to be an acquaintance," Mr. Bagnan, she smilingly said.

Fierce Filippians.

A Washington dispatch says: A Philippine mail brings to the war department the records of 11 cases wherein Filippians were tried by military commissions on charges furnished by murder, kidnapping, assault and battery, burglary and violation of the rules of war.

One case arose out of the operations of a famous outboard band of Filippians called the Society of the Sanda-Thanasians. The principal officers of this society, next to a triumvirate of chiefs, are a chief executioner and a chief assassin, who participate in the self-appointed work of the bands. The leaders select their victim, capture and carry him away in the night to a rendezvous on a sandy beach covered with very tall grass, where the diggers already have prepared the grave. Here, in the presence of the assembled band, helpless men and women from time have been staked to death and tossed into the grave. The members of the band then disperse and trust to the use and fall of the nearby waters to hide the evidence of their ghastly work. The members of the band, including two chiefs, were tried before a military commission, and eight of them were sentenced to be hanged.

In approving the sentence General MacArthur says:

"In reviewing the authority it is evident that there can be no hope of the future of the Philippines, nor the purity of their lives and property until they shall learn to hate against all bands of murderers and assassins, whatever name they shall assume, ever to the satisfaction of the officers of the law in their determination to bring them all to justice."

Five native policemen, who had been sent to gather wood for a detachment of American troops, were shot and killed by their number, and another soldier lost his arm. A number of the band which attacked them was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment.

THE ORGANIST

wonder how the organist got his name. He's getting ready long before the choir stands up and sings; he's pressing buttons, pushing stops; and testing all the working parts. While listening to the prayer.

He runs a mighty big machine. It's full of funny things; it's made of boxes, pipes and tubes. And sticks and slats and strings; and little wheels for use in rows, and rods, and rows; and all these twenty miles of tubes. As large as garden hose.

There's scores as big as stove-pipes, and there's as big and wide that several little boys know could play around them. From little bits of piccolos. That hardly make a note. There's every size up to the great Bb elevator chute.

The organist knows every one. And how they sing. He makes them rumble like a storm, or plays them sweet and low; at times you think them very near; at times they're soaring high; and angel voices singing far off somewhere in the sky.

For he can take this structure that's as big as any house, and make it sing as softly as a tiny little mouse. And then he'll jerk out something with a military band.

He plays it with his fingers and he plays it with his toes. And if he really wanted to, he could play it with his nose; he's sliding up and down the bench. He's dancing round with both his feet.

As lively as you please. I always like to take a seat Where I can see him go; He's better than a sermon, and he does me good, I know. I like to hear him play; He's the most exciting thing I know on Sabbath day.

SPORTS.

Appropos of the revival of the ancient game of bowls, immortalized by the play of William Shakspeare, on Thursday, when the Spanish Armada came to sight. It may be interesting to mention that the spinners, to which the members of the Southwestern Bowling Club boud their country, have a history of some five or six centuries. It occupies a site on the forebore about midway between the Southwestern railway dock station and the pier close to the ruins of King Canute's palace.

Famillar and Bosch of Syracuse, arrested for playing basketball on Sunday, have asked for a jury trial, and the case was set out for July 5.

Baseballers interested in the Eastern tour have asked that the latest tables should be printed. Here is the table according to the latest eastern mail:

	W.	L.	P.C.
Providence	25	15	62
Rochester	25	14	61
Toronto	25	14	61
Worcester	25	14	61
Syracuse	25	14	61
Buffalo	25	14	61
Hartford	25	14	61
Montreal	25	14	61

"Go to," they said, with the accent on the "to." You can never raise your foot high enough to get the might as well try to eat his own salt. Go to.

Interest of which the promoters of the club went up.

Last evening on Victoria Park a sanguinary struggle took place between teams of 12.

Many of Calgary's fairest and bravest ornamented the touchline and were much pleased at the spectacle of players furiously burling their heads in the dust.

It was reported on good authority that the Duke of Devonshire would be present. And so it turned out. A pressing engagement in New Zealand kept him away.

Next time he goes on tour perhaps the old ladies who arrange for his tour, will give him a chance to see the really stirring sport of football.

At that night was warm for football. Distinctly warm. It would have been warm for an ice-cream eating hand.

But when it comes to football with the class at 470 above the cliff, the player finds it an interesting problem whether his heavier half is in the persuasion forming a lake at his feet or in his legs.

About 40 minutes' play—when some one killed the players—was only minutes—those who had been training on sun soap. T. B. and Dumfries, were the cast of a three card. They put on their coats and departed from that.

Next Friday another force will be in place in battle. Also, the cricket pit will have blossomed into an open million and altogether, the match will be worth a guinea a box, as well as a war.

By the way, last night's game was won by a try, to nothing. It doesn't matter which side won. To publish these things, only causes jealousy.

On Whit Monday, at Manchester, in six hours and fifty minutes, the shirt lost Lancashire by nine wickets. Lancashire scored 122 and 44, Yorkshire 121, and for one wicket.

First took 12 Lancashire wickets for 11 in the match and 14 for 11 in the second innings. After Mr. McLaughlin had hit three for 11, the Yorkshireman claim bowled McLaren, and took the next six wickets for 11 runs.

The match between the White Rose and Red Rose cricketers have usually been notable for low scores. Since the first contest at the Watford ground in 1867 the two have played 50 matches. Not one of these has been drawn and the rivals have each won 25.

Yorkshire has scored 1416 runs for 1000 wickets, and Lancashire 1248 for 1075.

The return match, on August 5, 1898, was played at Huddersfield for the benefit of famous Jack Brown, the Huddersfield pro.

While cough which caused intense pain in my head, and my back, because very weak, could not sleep, and for over a year I could only talk in a whisper and sometimes my voice fell away entirely. I came to regard my condition as hopeless, but my husband urged further treatment and on his advice our family doctor, with two others held a consultation, the result of which was that they pronounced my case incurable. Northrup advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but after having already spent over $100 in doctor bills I did not have much faith in any medicine but as a last resort I finally decided to give them a trial. I had not taken many boxes of the pills before I noticed an improvement in my condition and this encouraged me to continue their use. After taking the pills for several months I was completely restored to health. The cough disappeared, I no longer suffered from the terrible pains I once endured, my voice became strong again, my appetite improved, and I was able to obtain peaceful sleep once more. While taking the pills I gained 75 pounds in weight. All this I owe to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I feel that I cannot say enough for their benefit. I know that they have certainly saved my life."

Write this kind in Williams' Pink Pills will cause more certain and steady results than any other medicine they act directly on the blood thus reaching the root of the trouble and driving every vestige of disease from the system. Sold in bottles in medicine or sent mail at like a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Address: Dr. J. C. Williams, Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Bring In Your Horses.

Ranchers in the Calgary District with horses to submit to Colonel Hudson's Bay Company will inspect them on the Territorial Fair grounds, on June 25.

The conditions of sale are as follows: From 12.5 to 15 hands, mounted in harness, $50; from 15 to 15.5, cavalry and artillery, $100.

Each owner brings each horse separately and the Colonel goes through the whole of one man's horses before he starts on another man's.

When the sale is made, the horse is taken to the five and the hoof brand and brand arrow are put on.

The owner is required to allow the horse with flat shoes in front, before shipping.

Payment is made when the horse is delivered on the railway car. Colonel Hudson made it impossible to give a cheque to each owner. Therefore, arrangements must be made by owners to have the cheque for the gross purchase paid to one responsible person, who will distribute the respective amounts due to each owner.

England Cannot Give Colonial Sugar Preference

London, June 25.—During the discussion of the Bance Bill in the House of Commons today, Sir Michael Hicks Beach insisted that the amendment, providing for a preferential duty on sugar from the British colonies, that he had no intention of embarking on such a policy.

It would benefit neither this country nor the colonies and would be a detriment to the sugar trade with the foreign countries. It would mean the risk of losing the favored nation treatment that British sugar enjoys in Germany.

If the preference were extended to sugar from Canada, Australia would want a special treatment for other products. Then the foreign countries would offer the same consideration to the colonies and would ask for similar treatment.

The fair preparations are well advanced. A Grand Celebration Assured. There was a special meeting of the directors of the fair, held last night at the office of the Secretary of the fair. It was decided to remove all weight restrictions in the heavy draft and general purpose classes, so that horses of all grades, of which may be available for competition. As was previously announced, the Territorial department of agriculture have provided judges for all lines of stock.

A bill of lading committee was appointed to see that there is no congestion of accommodation for visitors at the time of the fair.

The attraction committee submitted a report to the directors of the fair, judging from it the amendments at this fair will far outstrip previous efforts in that direction. The James M. Ward company of St. Louis has been engaged for the occasion, and this is a well-known company and advertisement.

The Kelly Merry Makers, who know no other troupe, have been engaged for the Alexander Hall.

Milton Webster, the well known rough rider, with several of his wild Westmen, have been booked to do the Buffalo Bill act, and altogether a most attractive programme of amusements has been prepared.

Rhodes Phis

Cape Colony.

Cape Town, June 17.—(Cable.) Rhodes, in his speech at Bulwer's, Rhodes, last Saturday when he predicted that a federation of the South African states would come in the next four years, made what is regarded in some quarters as a bid for the premiership of Cape Colony.

After enlisting the action of Rhodes and Natalians he said, the only state he pledged was the mother state, Cape Colony, whose political and religious leaders had incited rebellion.

When federation came none of the men would have anything to do with her, and he was afraid the people of his own state, who were raising "about like sheep without a shepherd, were coming out worse. Mr. Rhodes was afraid of the opportunity of saying a few words which he hoped would be in their good.

M. P.'s Scheming to Meet the Duke.

Ottawa, June 18.—The idea was quietly mooted, during the session of parliament which has lately closed, that it would be an appropriate thing to summon a special session of parliament of Canada to meet in Ottawa, during the days of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York's visit here, for the purpose of giving an opportunity to the members to meet the royal visitors.

It will be, of course, impossible to do this, and therefore to visit all parts of the country, and many of the members would not otherwise have an opportunity of meeting them.

Whether the government still has the proposed bill under consideration or not is not known. But some persons think the idea is a very good one. It would be no mean compliment to the help apparent.

THE CHURCH

The Rev. Mr. Gordon in his sermon Sunday morning at the Methodist church, spoke from the words of John addressed to Judah, "Is thy heart right?"

He said that oneness of method is not essential to oneness of aim. Similar opinions are not necessary to similar purpose. A true friendship can exist between a high minded Liberal and a high minded Conservative than between a high minded Catholic and a high minded Protestant.

I question if Moody ever read 100 pages of religious literature, but his life, but these men were true friends and warm friends. It seemed to be mystical friendship which bound these two men because of the same purpose and aim which dominated their lives, and I suppose that was why David thought out more of his brother.

We don't think alike because we have not been brought up alike, but after all if our aim is one, our purpose one, our God is one, our home one, our eternity one, then let us be friends.

"If thy heart is right, give me thy hand." If you go to your knees and bow to the Lord whether you live together here or not, if you believe that you are right in the Lord, and that means heart, then God will answer for your conduct.
